SELLER GUIDE · WHOLE BEAMS ON A PALLET

Have 3 to 6 Beams? Strap Them to a Pallet. We Send a Truck.

If you have 3 to 6 beams, you do not need to take them apart. Tie them to a pallet. I hire a freight truck and I pay for the shipping. It takes 8 easy steps.

THE DEAL — PRICE PER BEAM

$150	$160	$175
Picked up at your home	Picked up at a business with a forklift	You drop it at a freight terminal

Example: 4 beams picked up at your home = $600. 5 beams dropped at a terminal = $875. Set prices, no haggling. You see your total in Messenger right away.

1 or 2 beams? Use the Parts in a Bucket guide. More than 6? Message me and we will set up a second pallet.

Nothing welded. We can't buy parts that have been welded. If anything on the control arms, spindles, steering box, or beam has a weld on it, we have to pass. Link pin (1965 and older) and ball joint (1966 and newer) beams pay the same.

BEFORE YOU SAY YES — YOU MUST HAVE BOTH OF THESE

1 A PRINTER

I email you the truck papers. You must print them at home (4 pages). The driver will not take the pallet without them.

2 A PAYPAL ACCOUNT

We only pay with PayPal. No cash, checks, Venmo, Zelle, Cash App, or anything else.

No printer or no PayPal? Then this deal will not work. No hard feelings.

WHAT IT SHOULD LOOK LIKE

This is a real pallet of beams we picked up.

- Beams tied down tight
- It is OK if beams hang over the edge
- Paperwork in freezer bags, zip-tied to the beams
- Old straps, rope, or wire all work

THE 8 STEPS

1 Get your offer in Messenger.

Comment SELL on any Airkewld post on Facebook or Instagram, or tap “Get My Offer in Messenger” on our website. A message from us pops up in Messenger.

Tap “Pallet of 3-6 beams.” Type how many beams you have, then pick where the truck picks up:

Home · $150/beam I book a truck with a liftgate. No forklift needed.	Business + forklift · $160/beam Your forklift loads the truck.	Terminal · $175/beam You drop it off. I tell you where the closest one is.

You see your total right away. Tap “Yes, let's do it” to accept. Saying yes means you have a printer and a PayPal account. Messenger then asks for your name, address, and phone number.

2 Find a pallet.

Any wood pallet works. Most stores and shops give them away for free.

3 Tie the beams to the pallet.

Stack the beams on the pallet. It is OK if they hang over the edges.

Tie them down tight with anything you have: old tie-down straps, rope, or baling wire.

Shake it. If nothing moves, it is good.

4 Send me a photo and the size.

Messenger asks for a photo of the loaded pallet and its size: Length × Width × Height (in inches).

Do not worry about the weight. We figure that out.

5 I make the papers. You PRINT them.

I email you two things: the BOL (Bill of Lading — the paper the truck driver signs) and a shipping label.

PRINT THEM on regular paper with your printer: 3 copies of the BOL + 1 label = 4 pages.

The driver will not take the pallet without the printed papers.

6 Put the papers in freezer bags on the beams.

Bag 1: Print 3 copies of the BOL. Sign all 3. Put them in a zip-top freezer bag.

Bag 2: Put 1 copy of the shipping label in a second freezer bag.

Zip-tie both bags to the beams where the driver can see them.

7 Get paid with PayPal (the only way I pay).

PayPal is the only way I pay. Messenger asks for the email address on your PayPal account. Then pick one way to get paid:

OPTION A — Paid First

I pay you before you ship. This is sent as Goods & Services, so PayPal takes a small fee out of your payment.

OPTION B — No Fees

The truck picks up your pallet (or you drop it at the terminal). Then send me a photo of the signed BOL or receipt. I pay you right away as Friends & Family. No fees.
